

GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE NAGARI
(Accredited by NAAC with A+ Grade (2023-2028))

Criteria-6
6.1.1 (Additional Information)
2023-24

The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

6.1.1: Additional Information Interaction with stakeholders:

- The College aims to provide a conducive environment for the development and smooth functioning of all academic and administrative affairs. The stakeholders, such as students, parents, academic peers, university, College Planning and Development Council (CPDC), and alumni, have a constant interaction with the principal and faculty members.
- The Principal supports the faculty and students in academic and administrative affairs, while the staff council and CPDC involve themselves in developmental aspects. The concerned in-charge of the departments encourages the faculty to pursue active research, undergo trainings, orientation programs, and refresher courses to keep them updated and involved in teaching and learning processes effectively, innovatively, and rhetorically.
- The faculty members are given the freedom to deliberate in staff meetings, and their opinions are considered in a democratic way. Suggestions to develop the institution are solicited from them. The in-charges of the departments involve the faculty members in all academic and administrative matters and build teamwork.
- The Principal places the faculty members on various committees based on their efficiency, willingness, sense of involvement, and experience. The institutional head constitutes various committees such as IQAC, CPDC, Library, Sports and Games, Red Ribbon, Anti-Ragging, and other advisory committees for effective implementation of academic and non-academic plans, policies, and procedures.
- Periodic review meetings are conducted to evaluate the progress and guide the committees to achieve the set goals. The Academic Audit Committee visits the college once a year to verify the implementation of academic activities, such as syllabus coverage, usage of teaching and learning materials, seminars, guest lectures, group discussions, student project works, field trips, and workshops. The Academic Audit Committee guides the faculty in a comprehensive way in implementing academic, co curricular, and extracurricular activities.
- The NSS Committee, Games Committee, and Cultural Activity Committees actively participate in carrying out co-curricular and extracurricular activities.
