Consumer's day Celebrations-2017

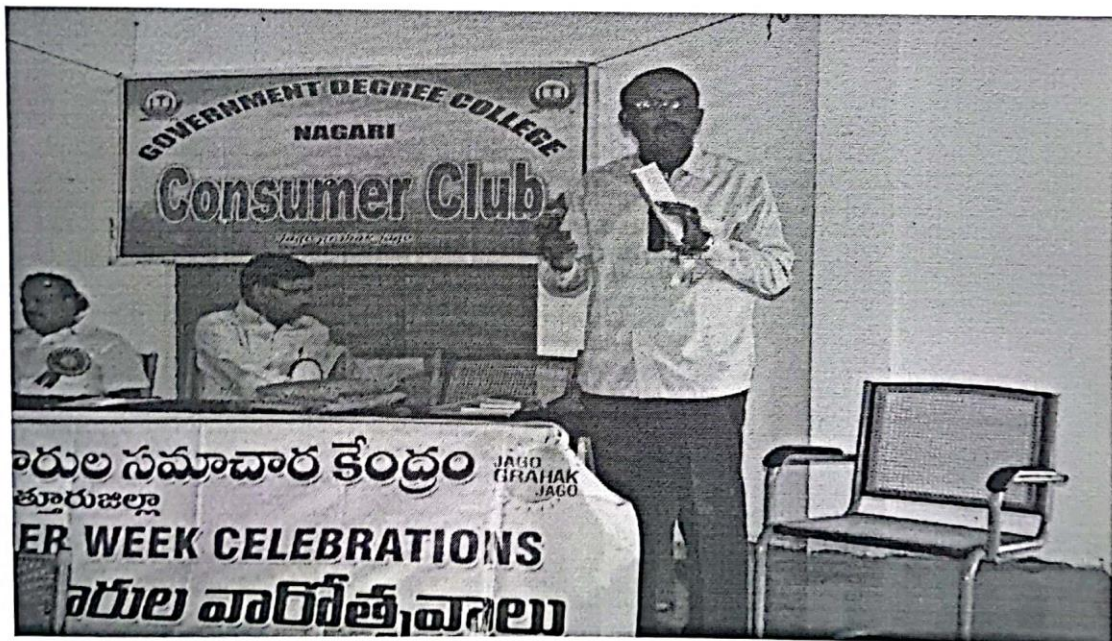

"If the consumers have awareness on the quality and price of the goods then the producers and shoppers would provide the goods with quality" – says by Dr.R.Rajendra Naidu, the principal of Govt Degree College, Nagari. A programme of "awareness of the consumers" is organized on the occasion of consumers day on 24th December in the college campus. Further, the Principal has given a message to the consumers that they have to improve or maintain the behavior of questioning about the quality and price of their buys.

If the buyer follows the rules of buying goods then they could get the knowledge of adulteration of goods then they demand for quality. Sri Raja Reddy, the president of consumer forum, is the chief guest has told that the consumers have to give a complaint in the forum about their loss in buying the goods then the case would be resolved in 90 days since the date of registration/lodged the complaint. It is a legal right to get qualitative goods from the merchant. Every consumer should know 'the rights and responsibilities about the consumers' act 1986. Dr.C.S.Sukumar Reddy, convener of the club, says that consuming adulterated goods would cause danger to health. Hence, every consumer should get awareness on the goods purchasing. Students got prizes on these occasion for the participation in various competitions organized by the club of the college.
